“ACE made me feel as though I wasn't on my own. I had thought the whole system was stacked against me.”

Parent

The Advisory Centre for Education is a charity whose vision is a fair education system for all. We provide free advice and information to over 90,000 parents each year, dealing with issues such as special educational needs, exclusions, bullying and admissions.

There are 7.3 million children in state education. The system is complex and if problems arise, it is very distressing for children and their parents. We want to ensure that all families have access to expert advice and support when they need it.

We rely on voluntary donations to keep our vital services running. Please consider making a donation to give children the best start in life.

It costs over £40 for an ACE adviser to support a caller to our Advice Line.

You can make a one-off donation using this form, or by visiting our website. Alternatively, you can become a regular donor by setting up a Direct Debit.

If you would like information about leaving a legacy to ACE, please contact us.

“This was a first class service ... The person I spoke to was very knowledgeable and knew the answers to all my questions.”
