

Make their school days happier!

Children are our future and we all want them to be happy and succeed. Sorting out problems at school can make the difference between failure and success. Parents and carers want the best for their children but often need help in understanding the education system and their own and their children's rights.

This is where ACE comes in. ACE helps all families by working for improvements to the education system so that all children are treated fairly and encouraged to do well. ACE also helps individual children by giving advice and support to their parents so that bullying can be stopped, places can be found in appropriate schools, special educational needs can be properly supported, children are not discriminated against, and behaviour problems are addressed so that exclusion and its difficult consequences can be avoided or minimised.

“This was a first class service ... The person I spoke to was very knowledgeable and knew the answers to all my questions.”

“ACE made me feel as though I wasn't on my own. I had thought the whole system was stacked against me.”

As the leading charity covering state education in England and Wales we provide advice by telephone, through booklets and via the internet to parents and carers. We also train advisers in local community organisations so they can help families in their local communities on a face-to-face basis.

We need your support to expand the advice service to meet the growing demand from desperate parents who often find our advice lines busy.
